Where a Colored Man Takes Two Premiums for Brood Mares-Phelan's Speech.

ISPECIAL TO THE APPRAL.

KEREVILLE, TENN., October 14 - The crowd today at the grounds of the Kerrville Fair Association is much larger than it has been since the opening. A special train from Cov-ington brought quite a party from that place and from stations this side, about 200 in all. The special train from Memphis at 10 o'clock this morning brought another large delegation, about twenty ladies and gentlemen coming from the city. The grand stand is well filled, with little room to spare. Every road leading to the town was lined with vehicles of every description until nearly dinner time. Every stall on the hitching grounds was taken before dinner time and at this hour, 2 o'clock, people are still arriving, the grand stand has been completely filled and hundreds stand in double rows about the railing which surrounds the exhibition ring. More interest seems to be taken in the fair by the ladies than by the other sex, and the consequence is that the amphi-theater presents a scene of brilliancy and color very pleasant to the eye. With the band playing, the horsemen galloping in generous rivalry about the ring, the gay cos uses of the rus-tic balles, the scene is one of considerable animation, and a Memphian naturally feels justons that Kerryille, a mere village, can make so excellent a showing, when it seems that Memohis takes no interest whatever in exhibiions calculated to create emulation among the farmers and stock raisers of Shelby. It is a mistake to suppo e that the it fluence of the fair is merely It extends not only over this end of the county but into Tipton, Hardeman and Fayette, and there are quite a number here from towns in North Mississippi and West Arkansar. The officers of the association offer very good premiums, everything considered, and give their services free of charge. They have been successful every year and there is a little money in the treasury, and the result of eight consecutive fairs is plainly visible in the increased interest taken in stock raising by the farmers within the influence of the fair association. Every other man you meet is a good judge of stock, and from learning what qualities are re-quired to take a premium has come the desire to have the blue ribbon tied to products of their own. Even the darkies about here are catching the infection, and in the brood mare and co't show today one of them took two premiums, a first and second. Joint Debate

At 4 o'clock in the evening a wegon was drawn up in front of the grand tion to he stand and speeches were made by the candidates for Congress.

Mr. James Phelan was introduced munity.

by Mr. S. A. Douglass.
Mr. Phelan said he and his competitor had been called on unexpictedly to make a few remarks. He did not intend to go into dry details. He did not think the leading questions of the day were fully understood. His competitor accused him of having said he would not support the Blair bill. What he had said was that a better way of getting at the same thing could be found. He thoug t it well to ad-vocate a measure which should be of sid to the State in supporting its schools. He was for Federal aid to education. He had opposed the Blair bill and proposed to oppose it until it was shown that nothing better could be done. That is the position occupied by all the most briliant leaders of Southern Democracy. He did not think it necessary to say more on the question. He believed in a revision of the present prohibitory tariff, such a revision as would protect the natural interests of the country. The history of the Republican party is a disgrace to every man in it. Every man they have put up for President from Grant's time down, has been either a rogue or the companion of thieves. On the other hand Democracy went into power, its banner car-ried by Grover Cleveland, whose stan-less public l fe had attracted the ad-miration and the respect of the whole country. I charge that my competitor repudites the principles of his own party in many of the utterances he makes. It has been a pleasure to me to be brought face to face with the ladies of this secti n. I recognize that it is your influence which has lifted up from the gloom which resulted from the war. Their pure spirit has made all the barren places to blessom as the rose. To you I confide into your bands the principles of the De-

Mr. Douglass then introduced the Hon. Zach Taylor, who said: LADIES AND FELLOW CITIZENSyears ago the people of this district nominated me to look after the r interes's in Congress, and a few days since my party ratified that choice. The people of the country do not expect that we shall dig down into the graves of the past. The old stale charges sgainst the leaders of the Republicant party have been been as the charges and the charges are the charges and the charges are the publican party have been buried at the ballot box time and again. I am not, and never have been and never will be, in favor of the Blair bill. My competitor rays if he can take nothing better he will take it. He seems to have undergone a change of heart since his nomination. Mr. Taylor went on to speak of his objections to the Blair bill, and concluded with a short sermon on the tariff. Neither spoke more than ten minvisible effect.

is tied to bis bridle. THE $800 stallion of Mr. A. J. Harris attracted considerable attention by ALL of the Democratic cand dates for the Legis'a ure returned to the city last night except Justices Harrell THE COLORED QUESTION and Allen.

Mr. James Phetan did not find it necessary to get anybody to introduce him today. The voters vied with each other in their attentions.

One of the young men in the racking horse exhibition, captured the crowd by holding the reins in his teeth, and his place at the head of the bunch.

RINGMASTER SMITH is 70 years of sge, and takes at much delight in the festivities as a boy o' 20. He rides a splendid white home, which dances gaily to the music.

MISS BESSIE WARD, a daily at'endant at the fair, and one of the most charming young ladies whose presence graces the grand stand, will spend next week in Memphia.

The quarter-mile track will be put in condition for the bicycle races to-morrow. Several of the members of the Memphis-Cycle Club are coming out to contest for the premium.

THE regular but gentle rain began falling at 5 o'clock yesterday evening and continued with wind until after 10 o'clock, laying the dust, and its absence, a bright sun and a plersant breeze, makes today as delightful as could have been desired. "THERE are not half the good horses in this locality entered here," said one of the directors of the fair yearerday, "but the exhibition is much better every year. FURSTENHEIM'S FUNERAL Memphis.

ATTENDED BY A LARGE GATHER-ING OF NOTABLE MEN.

His Memory Becomingly Honored by the Taxing District Government and Medical Students.

If Henry Furstenheim could have oreseen the character of the sseemblage that stood around his coffin and followed his remains to their last resting place, he would have felt that he had not lived in vain, and had died in the possession of the respect, the confidence, the esteem and the sincere good will of every right thinking member of the community in which he lived. Few men have been more bonored in death than be, and it canno: than he, and it cannot but be a scothing source of consola-tion to his bereaved family to remember how high their cherished relative stood in the good opinion of this com-

THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL paid him the signal honor of adjourning in his memory, an honor rarely paid to one not in public life. The meeting had been called fir the transaction of important business, but as soon as it convened Gen. Patterson offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this council adjourn until tomerrow at 2 colclock p.m., as a token of respect to the memory of H. Furstenheim, one of our most liberal and public spirited citizens, and that the members of the council attend his OCK ED18 At 3 o'c'ock pm., the hour an-nounced for the funeral rervices, the parlors of the deceased's late residence on Adams street were crowded with visitors, and the grounds surrounding the house were cov-ered with men, who stood with uncovered heids and bated breath while the sad services were being conducted within. Dr.W. E. Boggs, with a pathes that moved all hearers, read the solemn service, and a choir of female voices softly chanted a requiem. The composition of the assemblage that had come to pay their last tricute of respect to the dead was of a character not often seen at funerale. Men prominent in every rank of life-merchants, bankers, lawye's, physicians, editors, clerks, ar-tisans, mechanics, every avecation in life was represented and in every case by the very pick of the men in their respective callings. The President of the Taxing Dis rict and Commissioners Montgomery and Lee represented the city, but they were there also in a private capacity as citizens who felt it s duty to testify by their presence at his remains, their high appreciation of his worth as a man and a public epirited and open hear ed citizen. This sentiment seemed to be general and pervaded the minds of all present, and the sorrow that was apparent on the faces of all who were gathered there was genuine and sincere and the true expression of what was passing

BEFORE THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR AT RICHMOND.

What Grand Master Workman Powderly Has to Say About It-The Negro Recognized.

RICHMOND. Va., October 14.—The Executive Board of the Knights of Labor held a meeting at 8 o'clock this morning to consider the question of sending aid to the locked out cotton workers Augusts, Gs., the curriers and tancers, Salem and Pesbody, Mass, and the journeymen plumbers, New York City. The General Assembly had already voted that money should be sent to their relief. It was r solved that the sum of $15,000 should be devoted to this purpose, $5000 in each of the cases. Considered that further sums be sent as needed.

Mr. Powderly held a conference at Ford's Hotel last night with fifteen or sixteen colored delegates to the General Assembly. They represent the colored assemblies of Knights of Labor of Virginia, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi and other Southern States. The object of the conference was the formation of a bureau of colored Knights throughout the Southern States for the purpose of precaring accurate statistics relative to the condition of the colored people and their relation to white laborers wherever they are employed together.

These statistics are to comprise everything in connection with the hows of labor-the treatment they receive from their employers, their wages, cost of living, e.c. It is proposed to learn whether they receive the full I berty and rights to which they are legally entitled. But Mr. Powder'y said, in speaking of the con-Odlum, Mr. Roberson, P. Heffernau ference and its object, that the ques and Dan Schloss were on the grounds today, coming out on a special from tion of social equality is not one of the objects of the bureau Its object is to simulate the colored people to work for their own elevation. delegates he met were bright intelligent men, who seemed well fited to aid in improving the condition of their race. It was decided to elect a chairmen and secretary and have satisfants in each of the Southern States.

Immediately af er the General Assembly was called to order at 9 o'clock this morning, the work of balloting for members of the Executive Board began. There are six members of the board to be elected. The General Master Workman the General Secretary and General Treesurer are ex-officio members of the Executive Board.

The entire morning ses ion was con-sumed in ball ting for members of the General Executive Board. The vo'e stood as follows: Thomas B. Barry, 304; John W. Hayes, 284. Barry was elected on that ballot. Second Ballot-John W. Hayes, 335;

A. A. Carleton, 124. Hayes elected. Third Ballot—Wm. H. Bailey, 307; A. A. Carleton, 176. Bailey elected. A recess was taken at 12 o'clock until 2 o'cleck p.m., when belloting for the remaining three members of the board will be begun.

The remaining ballots for members of the board will be begun.

the General Executive Board resulted as follows: A. A. Carleton, 292; T. B. McGuire, 97. Carleton was elected. T. B. McGuire, 331; Joseph Buchanan, 281. Mr. McGuire was elected. Ira H. Allesworth, 315; Joseph Buchanan, 282. Allesworth was elected. There was a preliminary ballot for the elec-tion of two members of the General Co-operative Board to fill the places of the two retiring members, and the assembly then adjourned to tomorrow morning, when the election of general officers will be concluded.

An Earnest Appeal for Help During the Year 1886-87. The Memphis Exchange for women's work will soon enter upon the second year of its existence. Our institution year of its existence. Our residuon is founded upon membership, and cannot exist without its assistance. The object of the Exchange is not to furnish gratuitous support, but a means of self help to worthy women. We provide a market for the products of their labor, and assist them to find employment that they may rise shove dependence. We can only accomplish this by the co-operation of a benevolent public in giving us their patron-age. We have accomplished much age. We have accomplished much good, but there are larger fields of ure-fulness within our reach. Many women in our city and State are needing our assistance, and we can help them if the women will send us orders for work for which anxious hearts and ide hands are waiting. It has been proven that the safe and general anti-dote against sorrow is employment.

The Exchange has secured the commodious house, No. 306 Second street, and will soon throw open an inviting cafe to the public, as well as the selesroom, where beautiful and useful artito rent the upper rooms to business women, where they will fird a home under the protection of the ladies of the Exchange. We do most earnestly ask the generous women and men of Memphis to assist us by a renewal of their memberships and contributions. Give us your cordial and practical support.

LOOKS LIKE WAR. The Equitable Gaslight Company Enjoins the City.

The Equitable Gaslight Company

made a move yesterday which sounds like the first note of what promises to be a heated conflict. It will be re-membered that the Equitable, after obtaining a charter, applied for privilege to use the streets to lay its pipes, which privilege was denied them by the Texing District because it was under contract to give the exclusive right to the old gas company. That contract having been rejected by the stockholders of the company, the way was open for the Equitable to again apply for right of way. This plan way through its attorney, it applied for an injunction restraining the Taxing District from interfering with it in the effort to exercise the privileges granted by its charter. The order was granted by Judge Somers, of the Eleventh Chancery District. The next step will be watched with inter-

A meeting of Democrats will be held at the Courthouse at 8 o'clock this evening for the purpose of effecting an organization ut der the name and style of the Phelan and Shelby County Democratic Club. This is done in order to bring about a more thorough organization inside the party, and to insure the election of the coun-ty and Congressional ticket in November. All Democrats who desire the success of the entire ticket are earnestly invited to be present. Speeches will be made by various leading citizens and the ball sat in motion, to be kept moving until victory owns our efforts. Besides the organization of the c'ub as above mentioned, the meeting will appoint committees from each ward to work for the success of the ticket. Let every man claiming to be a Democrat leave his business for at least an hour or so and come out to make certain the election of the splendid ticket already nominated. The Republicans are in the field alort and active and will seave no stone unturned to e'ect their mer.

Democrats of Shelby, after the splendid work of August, will you egain al low Shelby county and the Tenth Congressional District to be haralded to the world as the stronghold of Repub-licanism? If not, then come to the Courthouse tonight and organize.

BASEBALL.

The Peach Pies Win a Game at Lit-

IMPROIAL TO THE APPRAIS! LITTLE ROCK, ARK., October 14.—
Owing to the rain of yesterday no ball was played on the association grounds today. The second game between the Peach Ples, of St. Louis, and the Little Rock nines took place and the way the Peach Pies got away with all rivals on the field was a caution. Both clubs did excellent work but a two days' rest put the St. Louis boys in such tip top trim that there was no holding them when the game was called. Score, 7 to 4 in favor of the Peach Pies. It is but fair to sta e that the light batters. the light battery of the home club was in the field. Tomorrow it is the in-tention to pit the heaviest men in town against the St. Louis crack club, and if they are defeated to turn the whole bakery over to her besetall team. Hadfield, foreman of the Arbansase Traveler, and a professional ball tosser, had his nose broken, a tooth knocked out and both eyes blackened by a passed ball as he was umplring he game. A Contest for the Local Champion-ship.

Sr. Louis, Mo., October 14.-The contest for the local championship be-tween the Largue and the Association Bareball Clubs commenced today, Five thousand people were present. Score: Browns, 3 Maroons, 0. Series
